Prayer of Confession:

In unison:* Gracious Master, like the woman from Samaria, we often shape our doctrine to fit our sinful deeds and desires, rather than letting the power of the gospel put our flesh to death. We quibble and debate when we ought to listen and believe. Forgive us for our slowness of heart, O God. In your mercy, give to us the living water you offered to this woman through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Anoint us with your Spirit so that we might have the faith to bear fruit unto righteousness, even eternal life. Along with Jesus, we acknowledge that salvation is from the Jews: Israel’s God is our God, her Messiah is our Messiah. As our God and Savior, help us serve you in spirit and in truth. Amen.

Confession of Faith: The Westminster Larger Catechism

Question and answer # 191

Q. What do we pray for in the second petition?

A. In the second petition (which is, Thy kingdom come), acknowledging ourselves and all mankind to be by nature under the dominion of sin and Satan, we pray, that the kingdom of sin and Satan may be destroyed, the gospel propagated throughout the world, the Jews called, the fullness of the Gentiles brought in; the church furnished with all gospel officers and ordinances, purged from corruption, countenanced and maintained by the civil magistrate; that the ordinances of Christ may be purely dispensed, and made effectual to the converting of those that are yet in their sins, and the confirming, comforting, and building up of those that are already converted: that Christ would rule in our hearts here, and hasten the time of his second coming, and our reigning with him forever: and that he would be pleased so to exercise the kingdom of his power in all the world, as may best conduce to these ends.
